“Король говорит!”

“Король говорит!” - авторский комплекс методических практик по развитию ораторского искусства был назван в честь одноименного английского фильма, режиссера Тома Хупера (the King’s speech). Сюжет картины рассказывает, как король Англии - Георг VI ищет способ улучшить качество ораторской речи. В преподавательской деятельности комплекс методических практик под названием “the King’s speech” помогает учителю постепенно развивать навыки ораторского искусства обучающихся на уроках иностранного языка, а также успешно готовить учеников к конкурсным мероприятиям в рамках городского проекта «Медиакласс в московской школе».

Актуальность методической практики

- Популярностью социальных сетей среди школьников.
- Запрос общества по развитию “мягких навыков” у учеников.
- Нехватка базовых коммуникативных навыков.

ОРИГИНАЛЬНОСТЬ ИДЕИ

Авторская практика «Король говорит!» помогает развивать и укреплять навыки критического мышления и ораторского мастерства. Весь комплекс мероприятий позволяет занимать призовые места в городских конкурсах на иностранном языке в рамках «Медиакласс в московской школе» :

«SchoolInstVoice»; «Наука для жизни», «Я умею говорить красиво» проект «Создание аудиогидов на иностранных языках для экспозиции Музей Победы»” .

SEE-THINK-WONDER (STW)

Развитие навыков говорения с опорой на картинку, это мыслительный прием, в котором ученики индивидуально или в команде отвечают на вопросы с целью развития навыков наблюдения и описания наблюдаемого.

SEE -THINK-WONDER

As the name implies students are encouraged to see, think, and wonder about an image or text as they read.

I See... Students discuss or record what details they notice in the text.

I Think... Students discuss or record their thinking as they read. This may be making inferences, predictions, or connections to the text.

I Wonder... Students discuss or record the questions they are wondering as they read.

FOR+	AGAINST-
big screen and loud sound	You can't use videos and photos
Movies the first released in cinema	You can't watch films when you want
	In cinema there is a big crowd of people
	In cinema you can't watch films w your pets
	You can't stop movies.

however, most people find it easier to watch movies at home, on the Internet. At home, you can pause a movie or series and watch at a convenient time, which cannot be done at the cinema. You can also eat any food, turn off the movie if you liked it, or just leave. video filming is also prohibited in the cinema, and at home you can use the phone as much as you like.

You can't bring pets to the cinema, but you can take them home. Also in the cinema there are frequent crowds of people, this is uncomfortable.

I think that watching movies at home is easier and better. No need to go anywhere and watch movies with strangers.

I rarely go to cinemas, because I myself do not like to go there, I feel uncomfortable there. At home, you can watch anything, anytime, with anyone. And most people can do that.

Essay:

I. Introduction
Nowadays, TV plays a very important role in our life. More and more people spend their free time on watching TV every day. From TV we can learn something or just relax during some interesting films. TV is certainly an easy way of spending time. However, TV is bad for our health. (52 words)

II. I support this topic because
To my mind, TV isn't healthy at all because we can get bad eyesight after watching TV a lot. Sometimes it is better to read a book then to sit before the screen. Furthermore, many programmes don't do anything to improve our lives. They destroy our mental health. Some people can even be more stupid or irritated because of such programmes. Besides, TV doesn't develop us sometimes. When we spend so much time on watching it we don't do anything important, especially for the health. (86 words)

GOING TO THE CINEMA IS ALWAYS BETTER THAN WATCHING DVD AT HOME

FOR	AGAINST
You can watch film on the huge screen and with columns, I mean at home your television and sound are not so good and loud as at the cinema. ;)	It is always comfortable to watch at home. Well, you can watch film if you want.
Movies at the cinema are released earlier. Of course, if you want to watch it first you need go to the cinema.	You can watch anything at cinema there are sessions turns out that every day movies at a certain time

ESSAY

Going to the cinema is always better than watching DVD at home

First of all, many people go to the cinema to watch something interesting on the big screen with others. But some people think that this is the waste of money and the same movie can be watched on DVD at home. It is more comfortable for them. But are they really, right?

As far as I know watching DVD at home has got some advantages: for example

- 1) You can spend much less money or not spend at all. Well, if you are going to the cinema, you will buy tickets for your family and yourself, some snacks. But when you want to watch something on DVD it can be for free, also you do not need a lot of time to wait start and stand line.
- 2) You can sit comfortably on a spacious sofa. When you are in the cinema you need to try to fit in one chair and put things.

However, watching DVD has got some disadvantages, like:

- 1) The sound and screen are not as good as in cinemas. Of course, it is not so loud and fantastic.
- 2) If you litter in the cinema, then they clean after you, unlike at home. You clean up after yourself at home.

In conclusion, I consider that it is more comfortable to watch DVD at home because you can sit everywhere you want and watch different movies on 1 day. You do not need to spend money for tickets. That is all I wanted to say.

It improves the functioning of the nervous system and brain.
